

Methodist Church

We are sending out this call to all our Methodist people of Torrance who have been affiliated with our church elsewhere to come and find a home with us.

The departments needing helpers are the Sunday school, the Ladies' Aid, the men's department, Epworth League, junior society, and athletics.

Just now we are laying special stress upon our church training night, which comes every Wednesday.

The club room and athletics department will soon be open. Mr. Moore, the Boy Scout man, is to be here next Tuesday for some demonstrations of his work.

Next Sunday is going to be an important day. The pastor will speak in the morning on "God's Storehouse."

First Baptist Church

The Woman's Missionary society will meet at the parsonage Thursday afternoon, Oct. 18.

All people invited to all services. Frances A. Zeller, pastor.

Lomita Community Church

Sunday, Oct. 14—Morning worship 11 a.m.; "Deers of the Word." Evening worship 7:30; "The Incarnation of Christ."

Last Sunday evening the pastor began a series of sermons on the Christian doctrines, the first one being on "The Personality of God."

The Old Testament idea of God was that of a king seated upon a throne. Honor and majesty are before Him.

In the New Testament, without denying this description of God, Jesus taught His disciples to call God their Father.

The child inherits his father's nature. He is his father's flesh and blood. But the father is one person, the child is another person.

The intermediate C. E. prayer meeting was led by Miss Leila O'Quinn, the topic being "The Word-of-God Psalm."

In the morning the pastor spoke on the subject, "God Forward."

"BETTER BABIES DAY"

The child welfare department of the Torrance Woman's club, in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce and the Parent-Teachers' association, will hold Better Babies Day October 23.

All mothers of Torrance and vicinity are invited to bring their babies to the high school building to have them weighed.

It is thought that this may lead to the establishment here of a mothers' center, as there are from fourteen to eighteen Torrance mothers who take their babies every month to Los Angeles or some other nearby center.

When clinical intervention is necessary the parent is requested to take the child to a physician and have the existing cause removed, then return to the center for instruction in how to prevent its recurrence.

A large attendance is expected, as the business meeting will be of interest to every member.

F. AND S. CLUB

Mysterious games of magic occupied the fun time at the Fun and Study club Tuesday evening. Some of the tricks were quite puzzling, but wits were set to work and all the secrets were finally ferreted out.

At 8:30 the gospels came forth and all turned to the study of "Mansions," in the fourteenth chapter of St. John: "I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you into myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."—John 14:2-3.

Members of the club present were Dawson Trotman, Alice Rugraff, Ruth Maher, Ollie Stitts, Louise Cotton, Jimmie Fletcher, Rachel Cotton, Harry Mack, Charles Hatfield, Henning Franzen.
